

I oppose more consolidation of media interests. You are not protecting the public in any way by changing these rules.